

The Albergo Terme La Reginella, is a discreet and sheltered hotel situated in one of the most elegant centres on the island, where unrivalled hospitality and atmosphere have been offered to personalities from the show business and the international jet set since the early 1950s when they began visiting Lacco Ameno.

The pastel colours of the furnishings and the Neapolitan majolica tiles decorated by hand, combine to create an elegant, fresh and enjoyable ambience.

The large garden, with its lush green subtropical plants, flowers and giant strelizias, is the setting for the outdoor pools, each at a different temperature, and also serves as the “entrance hall” to the indoor one.

An al fresco restaurant, a bar and the tennis court are located along the walkways of this luxuriant garden.
